

25 years of building community and changing lives

For immediate release

For more information, contact Beth Wade at info@champhomes.org

CHAMP Homes hires Janet Coe-Hyslip as Residential Coordinator

Hyannis, MA, April 13th, 2016 – CHAMP Homes is pleased to announce that Janet Coe-Hyslip of Dennisport has joined its Care Team as Residential Coordinator.

Executive Director Beth Wade said: “Janet’s experience and her warm and caring demeanor make her a great addition to our team—we are very fortunate to welcome her to our staff!”

Janet has a rich history in education, having worked over 20 years in public schools (15 years in Harwich Public Schools where she was a paraprofessional for the Youth-At-Risk program). She has also worked in a wide variety of human services organizations—as a case manager for CapeAbilities; at Housing Assistance Corporation as a case manager for a family shelter and as a housing and stabilization case manager in direct support at the NOAH shelter. Additionally Janet worked as a Housing Counselor for South Shore housing in their Domestic Violence Scattered site program. Finally, she worked as the Tenancy Preservation Regional Coordinator in Fall River for Father Bill’s & Mainspring, where she worked in the Housing Courts as a mediator to help prevent families from becoming homeless.

Janet grew up in the Hudson River Town of Dobbs Ferry, New York. She moved to Cape Cod in 1992. Janet has been blessed with four children, who are now 26, 28, 34, and 36. She is also the proud Granny of five—Theodore, Abel, Raizo, Charlotte, and Eddy.

CHAMP Homes was established in 1991 and since then has helped over 2,500 individuals on Cape Cod. It currently provides housing to up to 65 residents, aged 17 to 80. Many of these residents are at-risk individuals who suffer from mental, physical and emotional challenges or are recovering from addiction and have never experienced a loving family environment. CHAMP Homes is a place where people receive the gift of security, as well as opportunities to attain the tools and experience necessary to become self-supportive through education, career and life skills training. For more information about CHAMP Homes and Pilot House, please call 508-771-0885, write to us at 82 School Street, Hyannis, MA 02601 or visit our website, www.CHAMPHomes.org. ###