CHAMP Homes recognizes Dan McCullough, Dan Wolf, Elizabeth Arnold Stevens, Paul and Carolyn Hebert at “Home is Where the Heart is” Event

Hyannis, November 3rd, 2016 –
CHAMP Homes is pleased to announce that its first “Home is where the Heart is” event was attended by over 200 people.

Executive Director Beth Wade and a host of volunteers recognized Dan McCullough, Dan Wolf, CHAMP Home founders Paul and Carolyn Hebert with special awards.

Beth Wade also made a presentation to the family of Elizabeth Arnold “Libby” Stevens, in honor of her generous support of the future of CHAMP Homes and its residents. In special recognition the current “Pilot House” will be renamed the “Elizabeth Arnold Libby Stevens” house, after its renovations, starting this winter.

CHAMP Homes has been providing and maintaining a safe and nurturing family-type environment for formerly homeless individuals for 25 years. Founded in 1991, the organization has helped over 2,500 individuals on Cape Cod. It currently provides housing to up to 65 residents, aged 17 to 80. Many of these residents are at-risk individuals who are challenged by mental, physical and emotional disabilities or are recovering from addiction and have never experienced a loving family environment.

CHAMP Homes is a place where people receive the gift of security, as well as opportunities to attain the tools and experience necessary to become self-supportive through education, career and life skills training.
